

Application for Membership of Transforming Practices Inc as a Pastoral Supervisor

Transforming Practices Inc (TP) is a group of autonomous Pastoral/Professional Supervisors which forms a Community of Practice. This Community of Practice creates an ongoing transformational learning experience including reflective practice, theological reflection, professional accountability and ethical practice.

Membership of TP is more than a professional formality. To operate effectively and fruitfully as a Community of Practice, members each have an opportunity and a responsibility including:

- To participate in the Community of Practice appropriately and cooperatively, sharing skills, insights and learning from their practice as Pastoral Supervisors
- To support our ethical practice as Pastoral Supervisors through mutual confidential consultation, presentations in group supervision and group conversations to deepen theological reflection on our supervisory practice
- The opportunity to take up a leadership role as a member of TP's Management Committee ie the association's board.
- There is a yearly requirement to attend and participate in TP's Professional Development and there is an opportunity to invite colleagues to participate.
- To support and challenge the learning and ethical practice of pastoral practitioners through individual and Facilitated Group Supervision (FGS).

Benefits of Membership include:

- No-fee Facilitated Group Supervision (FGS)
- Opportunities to participate in free PD events
- Network with peers in the supervision arena
- Promote your supervision services on our website
- Opportunity to attend face to face events such as our AGM Day and Gathering at a reduced rate
- Become a part of an established group of Supervisors developing a collective and strategic voice within the field of supervision
- Opportunity to engage and challenge your own supervisory practice in a deeper and reflective practice to further your own transformational journey
- Opportunity to present Professional Development

Requirements needed to become a member of Transforming Practices:

- At least 21 hours of receiving supervision on my pastoral ministry with a qualified pastoral supervisor over a three-year period prior to application – signed off by supervisor/s
- At least 72 hours of supervisor theory - Certificate & transcript to be provided
- At least 120 hours of casework supervisory practice – signed off by supervisor/s
- At least 15 hours of receiving supervision on your supervision practice – signed off by supervisor/s
- Completion of the Embracing Transformative Learning upon membership approval within 12 months unless you have unlocked your free membership through your previous attendance
- Completion of a reflective paper of at least 1000 words regarding your understanding of reflective practice and transformative learning as it applies to your pastoral supervision
